

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

The Voice

Penshurst Anglican Church

We welcome you to our celebrations this morning! If you are a visitor here today, we pray that the Triune God of grace will richly meet you where you are, in the fellowship of His people here at PAC. We also invite you to make yourself known to us through the visitor forms found in the pew holders.

"I will sing for the one I love a song about his vineyard: My loved one had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. He dug it up and cleared it of stones and planted it with the choicest vines. He built a watchtower in it and cut out a winepress as well. Then he looked for a crop of good grapes..."

Pray for the Lukins

(This will be the last prayer letter we publish from the Lukins family. Our missionary committee has decided to no longer support them and to turn our support to areas in which our entire church community can better engage.)

Dear Friends,

We are well into the swing of things with the academic year up and running...Another pastor (you may remember we prayed for a guy called Alexis from our old church Alesia, who has just finished his theological studies and has taken up his first position as a pastor) said he felt like his church had 'reunionitis' (meetingitis)... Too many meetings....Well, it feels a little like that for us. But we are grateful for a relaxing holiday as a family, that we had in August.....lots of sun and sport. Thank the Lord that we were able to switch off and relax together. Please pray for our children, especially Max and Abi who have started at new schools this year. That they would all trust in the Lord and shine like stars for Him, in their various schools/classes.

There is much to be done and could be done for the Gospel this coming year, pray that we would be guided by God in all we do. That those who seek to hinder or stop the gospel going out would be silenced.

One initiative, is a marriage enrichment course to be run in conjunction with a local Baptist church, in the month of November. Pray that the couples who are keen to do this would be greatly strengthened in their marriages.

Pray for Xavier, as he prepares and preaches sermons, through the book of Acts. That he and others would see God's plan of salvation...

Give thanks that a friend of Libby, B, has agreed to read the Bible with her once a fortnight. She is a Catholic lady, and has known Libby for the last three years. Pray that she would be more and more convicted of her need to rely on Jesus as her Lord and Saviour. She suggested that her mother come along too, to read the Bible. Pray that they would be able to find time to do this regularly.
