

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

The Voice

Penshurst Anglican Church

We welcome you to our celebrations this morning! If you are a visitor here today, we pray that the Triune God of grace will richly meet you where you are, in the fellowship of His people here at PAC. We also invite you to make yourself known to us through the visitor forms found in the pew holders.

Aisen Ju returns to speak to us today. He will be preaching at all three services.

It is highly possible that he will be serving with us next year as Bart's Assistant, so please welcome and encourage him and his wife, Wendy.

There will be a Q & A time with Aisen after lunch (held in Mandarin). All are welcome to attend.

Combined Cells Christmas Yum Cha! All the cell groups (English and Mandarin) are invited to attend a ‘Combined cells Christmas Yum Cha’ at Hurstville’s Sunny Seafood Restaurant, Saturday Nov. 26th at 12 noon. Please see Bart to register.

Christmas Hampers— Each year, Anglicare organises Christmas hampers for needy families. They also deliver food parcels. The program is called ‘Toys N’ Tucker’ and we have a box at the back of the church for your contributions. Toys are to be new and not wrapped. Thank you.

Baptisms— Eight people are now doing baptism classes! As you can imagine, I am very excited for them as they prepare themselves to make a public declaration of their faith in Jesus Christ. I have asked each of them to name a ‘godparent’ for themselves, someone they can look to for spiritual help and inspiration. The baptisms will be held in February 2012.
