

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

The Voice

Penshurst Anglican Church

We welcome you to our celebrations this morning! If you are a visitor here today, we pray that the Triune God of grace will richly meet you where you are, in the fellowship of His people here at PAC. We also invite you to make yourself known to us through the visitor forms found in the pew holders.

Ephesians 1:18-19

I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and his incomparably great power for us who believe.

Our Annual General Meeting will be held on Sunday afternoon, the 11th of March at 1pm. At this stage, 4 out of our 6 Parish Councillors are willing to return to serve again on the Council. Two members from the mandarin congregation have asked to be replaced. Pray for the right people to step into these positions of responsibility.

Church Camp– Numbers for the church camp have exceeded expectations with around 70 people registered to attend. Please pray for the organising committee as they finalise accommodation and activities for the weekend. Pray also for Bart and Aisen as they prepare the study talks.

Pray for Syria

Syria is facing a civil war and Christians are preparing for the worst. Fundamental Islamic groups have orchestrated violent protests against the Syrian government. This could result in a new regime, even worse than that of the current brutality of President Assad. If a change of power occurs...the revenge of the Sunnis could be more bloody than the over 7,100 deaths that have occurred since March 2011.

Open Doors has been working around the clock to deliver whatever is needed to prepare Syrian Christians for difficult years ahead. In fact, 2011 was the best year ever in terms of our distribution of Bibles and Christian materials.

Christians in dozens of countries around the world face the same complex dilemma where they cannot count on governments to protect them. But they can count the prayers of the church and the power of God through His Word to see them through whatever battles are sure to come.

"Before I didn't see the importance of prayer," Leah* says from Syria. "I began to see how the people of God are coming together in fasting and prayers then understood what it means to be the body of Christ." "My faith became stronger because I am not alone."

Would you please join Leah and millions like her who ask that you pray for their safety and courage? Thank you for supporting our brothers and sisters who live where faith costs the most.
