

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Bart is in the USA in order to defend his thesis on The Multi-Ethnic Church in Sydney Diocese. He graduates on May 12th. Ken Churchward will be filling in for this time, preaching a series of sermons on the Risen & Living Lord Jesus Christ.

Starting in June, the 10:30 congregations will begin a six-week trial of Combined Worship. This means that the English and Mandarin speaking congregations will start every Sunday service together in a time of corporate, bi-lingual worship filled with singing, liturgy and special forms of praise. Because this is such a new thing, we need to pray for those who organise and those who lead the worship times, especially the musicians.

We will also need to be patient as our old ways of doing things evolve into something new and fresh for us all.

It is my prayer that this time of Combined Worship will provide rich opportunities for the unique diversity of our church membership to gather together as one family in the household of faith and publicly display our unity in Christ. May the world see that our oneness comes only as we lift up the Lord Jesus Christ together in the Spirit, to the glory of the Father!

Pray for Kian Holik (UTS)

Dear Friends,

As you may have read from last Servoholiks newsletter, I am going to lead a short term mission team from Credo/UTS to Yogyakarta, Indonesia, from 20 June until 15 July. There will be 6 of us all together to work in God's kingdom in Indonesia.

The purpose of this trip is for the team to help and encourage Perkantas, IFES Christian uni student group in a muslim populated country of Indonesia, in evangelism among uni students in Yogyakarta. In Yogyakarta itself, there are 50 universities with only 5 full time Perkantas staff.

I appreciate your prayer and support in this, especially as I will leave my family in Sydney for that time. I do need some prayer warriors to stand side by side with me at this particular mission. If you have facebook, you can 'like' our Credo Indonesia Mission 2012 page, in which you will be updated with prayer points regularly.

I am also hoping that you to consider and pray supporting me and the team financially. At the moment I am needing $1800 for my personal budget (including airfare and for 3 weeks there).

I would like to thank you to put me and my mission trip plan to Indonesia in your prayer time. I pray that in this act of grace, '...God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.'

Blessings,

Kian Holik
