

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Are you interested in learning to play the guitar for Sunday worship?

Bart is willing to train all those who are ready to put in some serious work to learn the basics of rhythm guitar— chord formation and strumming. See Bart for details and to organise the best time to meet together.

Amy and Darren (former neighbours) need some help fixing up their new accommodation in Hurstville. It's an old house with lots of needed repairs! If you can lend a hand next Saturday morning, please let Bart know.

New Sermon Series: This new series in 1 Samuel is simultaneously being preached by both Bart and Aisen. Although their messages will not be identical, the intention is that they will combine their thoughts and work together in the preparation of their messages. Our prayer is that the two congregations will be challenged and encouraged in similar ways and shaped by the Word of God in a consistently unified direction.

Calendar of Upcoming Events

Prayer Points

Starting in two weeks time, the 10:30 congregations will begin a six-week trial of Combined Worship. This means that the English and Mandarin speaking congregations will start every Sunday service together in a time of corporate, bi-lingual worship filled with singing, liturgy and special forms of praise.

Because this is such a new thing, we need to pray:

1. Pray for those who organise and those who lead the worship times, that they will be filled with the spirit of creativity and praise.
2. Pray for the new combinations of musicians from both congregations, the new songs and this new experience of bi-lingual worship.
3. Pray for special patience and understanding as our old ways of doing things evolve into something new and fresh for us all.
4. Pray that this time of Combined Worship will provide rich opportunities for the unique diversity of our church membership to gather together as one family in the household of faith and publicly display our unity in Christ.
5. Pray that the world will see that our oneness comes only as we lift up the Lord Jesus Christ together in the Spirit, to the glory of the Father!
