

Cell Groups at Penshurst Anglican Church

Our church calls itself a 'cell church', built upon the Biblical idea that the primary way that God's people can truly live out the Gospel is through small, intentional communities (called 'cells'). It is here where Jesus is given a far more intimate opportunity to do His work of transformation.

Preaching program

"Come, Follow Me!"

As the title implies, this new sermon series will focus on what it means to be Christ's disciples, but particularly from an emotional perspective. Through these studies, we will begin to introduce some of the concepts that we will study in greater depth during our church camp in September.

Sermon Series: Come, Follow Me!

Sept 14	Feeling Wronged	Galatians 2:11-16 Matthew 18:15-35
Sept	Feeling Trapped	Matthew 19:1-12
Sept 28	Feeling Cheated	Matthew 19:16- 20:16

Women to women, Statistics to Stories September 20, 7.15-9pm

Ladies, you and your friends are invited to St Aidan's Hurstville Grove for an evening of interactive storytelling exploring women living in God's world. Listen to stories journey from Africa to Asia and our own community through song, poetry and reflection. Be inspired to come away from the evening with an action plan of how we can act positively whether personally, locally or globally.

PAC's annual Missions Month is coming!

Every year, we raise extra money for missions by holding a 'Mega Missions Market' of used and near-new items collected from our parishioners. Please begin to consider what you might contribute to this sale!

Offertory envelopes are now available at the back of the church.

Pray for St George Hospital Chaplaincy

(This year, some of the money raised at Market Day will go to support the work of David Lakos, Anglicare Chaplain at St. George Hospital. Below is his latest news:)

An opportunity to get the word out

These days it seems almost every group or issue has its special day or week to showcase itself. (There's even an "International Talk Like a Pirate Day"!) We were pleased to discover there's a "Pastoral Care Week" (in October), and even more pleased that the hospital management has given approval for the chaplains to have an information stall in the hospital foyer on Monday 20 October.

Please pray for the work of Anglicare Chaplains:

- * Opportunities to offer comfort, forgiveness and hope in the name of Jesus as we visit in the hospital wards
- * Good contacts through our stall in Pastoral Care Week
- * Our St George chaplains' retreat coming up on 22-24 October— for a good time of learning and growing together
