Engaging in Church

I read this article and thought it gave perspective on how we can all approach gathering.

In essence:

Being early and leaving facilitates opportunities to connect.

We want to stay engaged at every point during the service.

We want to look for new people to connect with.

We should risk having real conversations.

Working Bee (Saturday 22nd September, Saturday, 9am-10:30am, the Church)

It is a general clean up. We will work on the gardens, the kitchen and throughout the property.

Come and help. Stay for morning tea.

Music Workshop (Sunday 23rd Feb, 12:30pm-2pm)

Our annual workshop is at the end of this month. The goal is to cultivate skills and work well as bands.

We want to people to praise God from the heart.

Anglicare visit (2nd March)

Sashi Grayndler and Rev Stephen Gibson will join us next week to talk about chaplaincy ministry. The aim is to promote prayer and help people connect into this opportunity.

AGM (Sunday 23rd March, 1pm in the church building)

Mark in your diary the date. Pray for wisdom as we nominate people for various roles.

Prayer

J and M (Vietnam)

- Pray for recovery from sickness that has affected them both.
- Pray for the second meeting with the field leader. They want wisdom as they discuss how they can collaborate with others and specifically to serve.
- Give thanks for the support of the prayer teams during this time.
- Pray that Satan would not impede gospel opportunities.
