24 July 2022

Parish Council Updates

- Building renovations continue with work on the staff office, kitchen roof and a slatted wall for the toilets.
- Council is investigating the purchase of an electronic keyboard. This is due to the problems with the organ.
- An air conditioner unit for the office will be installed.
- In light of the rise in COVID cases, plastic communion cups will continue. This will be reviewed regularly.
- Handrail will be installed next to the ramp into the foyer.

Prayer

- Give thanks for the new members of the GodlyPlay team.
- For a successful launch of Playtime.
- For wisdom as we look to implement ideas coming from the day conference.
- For year 12 students as they prepare for their trial exams.
- Pray that we would thrive in our spiritual lives.

David Lakos

David engages in hospital chaplaincy at St George hospital. He looks for opportunities to bring the hope of Jesus to people in difficult situations.

- Give thanks for the opportunity to job share and move to 4 days per week.
- Thanks for the team retreat in May: for the friendships and learning.
- Pray for grace and discernment as they serve in a public hospital.
- Pray for God will arrange "divine appointments" for us with the people that He wants us to meet.
